Important Notes: Each candidate must file an affidavit of candidacy and nomination petitions. The nomination petitions must have at least the minimum number of signatures for that office.

Candidates running for at-large seats may collect signatures from anywhere in the school district.

Candidates running for seats which can be voted for only by voters in a director district must collect all signatures within the director district.

Petitions signers must eligible electors of the school district and director district (if applicable).

If an office will appear on the ballot to fill a vacancy, candidates filing for that office must check the box "To Fill Vacancy" on their nomination papers. This will distinguish the vacancy from other seats on the board of directors which have terms that end at a later date.
